

Courageous Followers, Courageous Leaders

What is courage...and what does it have to do with being an effective follower or leader? This training session allows you to look at how courageously you perform in the workplace and while pinpointing strengths and weaknesses as a follower and/or leader.

We will discuss the four main attributes of being a strong follower and leader: serving, responsibility, challenges, and leaving...and how they can impact you as a productive and dedicated employee in regards to your co-workers and the organization overall.

Tuesday, October 26, 2009

1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

177 B Administration Building

Register online at:

<http://learningcurve.memphis.edu>